Why have you spent sooo much time haggling over above subject when they have offered so much help to our school children.

Seems there are many, many other things you should be spending your time on, such as Our Country's Safety, More % for social security(like government workers or at least cost of living), feeding the undernourished Americans & much more.

Your fleecing of America Ex.: the railroad line in Vermont where Billions were wasted in case you did not hear Tom Brokaw's mews today.

Please drop this daudling & finalize with Microsoft!
